Thank you for all the care and love you put into Engage. I LOVED the experience-from the email saying that my attendance was confirmed to the photos and videos re-caping the magic and all the details in between. From asking for a little video clip (which made me feel like I mattered), the care you put into the package that made it all real the week before the trip (I was SO excited that my care package made it to Canada!!), to the personal itinerary with all of my dream sessions (!!!) to the invitation to the gala...I could go on and on, you thought of everything! I was so nervous and these little touches made it so much easier and an experience I will hold on to forever.

Everything about the conference was well done. I appreciate (and expect) a well branded experience, and you did not disappoint. I crave quality lectures when I attend these things - and you surpassed my expectations. I thoroughly enjoyed networking with the attendees. All in all it was a wonderful and worthwhile experience and I am grateful that I chose to take off to the Caymans and collect my first bling ball!

Susie Perelman, Mosaic, Inc.

Perfect event. Again.

Julie Sabatino, The Stylish Bride

I have worked so hard for years now to be able to come to Engage and it was truly a dream come true. Each night that I went to bed during the conference, I thought to myself, I could just go home now and I would have been more than happy and then the next day would unfold and blow me away even more.

Everything not only met, but surpassed any and all expectations. I can honestly say this was a life changing experience.

Emily Vandevender, The Art Institute of Chicago

Thank you for creating the wonderfulness that is engage! I came back to work + life with a fresh approach with a combo of Christine Traulich's "Perpetual Optimism" and David Beahm's "Jealousy Kills Joy" attitude and have been trying to share those feelings with my team. The experience not only gave me new relationships with people around the country and the world, but strengthened relationships with the awesome Dallas vendors that I am lucky enough to work with.

Alison Macnealy, Arlington Hall at Lee Park

You did it again! Congrats on another amazing, inspiring, memorable, and fantastic engage! Its such a pleasure to be a part of the greatness you create each time. Cheers to a job (beyond) well done.

How is it that this fabulous experience lasted "only" three days? I feel like I have been there at least two weeks with everything that happened. As a first time attendee, I didn't really know what to expect - yet what I got was so, so, SO much more than what I could ever have thought of even in my wildest dreams. It was incredible to meet you, amazing to be a part of the Engage! Family, energizing to take part in all those discussions, sessions, round-tables and chats that we shared. So fabulous.

WOW WOW WOW!!!! It was everything we expected and yet so much more! We had an amazing time, networked our brains out and left feeling positively changed. Totally BLOWN AWAY by the level of detail in everything you do. And we loved that you put "Fathom Co" on our nametags, the shortened version of our company name that we've been using for years. The fact that you noticed and applied that made us feel special. And the Gala...Insane in the membrane...never ever seen anything like it and felt like we witnessed something really special. The takeaway? Push it to the limit, make an impression, and don't forget the pretty! THANK YOU. For effecting change in our lives and for sharing your amazingness with us! Loved every second,

This year, I will be a 'triple-baller' as they say at Engage! – something that I am truly proud of as it is representative of my growth and maturity as an event professional and my degree of accountability to my business and myself. I have learned that Engage! is an investment in myself, my business, and my 'livelihood' as an event entrepreneur.

Engage! has increased my confidence, expanded my knowledge base, broadened my network, and has been the much needed 'facilitator' of change I required to revitalize my business.

My first Engage! ever was back in 2010 in Grand Cayman and it was amazing and exciting to see all that they have done to grow the brand and the EXPERIENCE for the attendees. It's a unique setting to be able to not only learn from industry experts but also to relax, connect and engage! with your peers.

Xochitl Gonzalez, Always a Blogmaid

Engage! is a luxury wedding summit full of industry superstars—the best of the best—sharing tips, trends, and insights into the wonderful world of event planning! This year's event was incredible, as usual, as they pulled off another flawless week full of inspiration, tons of fun, and amazing tropical charm.

Dora Manuel, Viva Bella Events

With an impressive spread of influencers who encouraged every attendee to shake up the industry (in the best of ways), we intently scribbled away pages of notes between our dips in the Caribbean. The premise of Engage! was to disrupt the flow and set new industry standards by working smart. With an impeccable crowd of leaders sparking new ideas within a crowd of innovative-hungry minds, we squirmed in our seats with inspiration.

Leslie Wong & Shadiyah Sigala, HoneyBook

There's something about floating in the beautiful Caribbean with like minded creatives that you just can't get anywhere else. In addition to the beautiful locale, seeing friends and catching up, there's something about a well thought out and branded event that makes me unbelievably happy!

Kasey Conyers, Bliss Wedding + Event Design

Engage! seemed to have an overwhelming theme of “Be Real”, “Be You” and “Be Present”. And I have to say, since I have returned from Grand Cayman, I have felt more of those sentiments than ever before.

Danielle Ehrlich, Francine Ribeau Events

THE industry conference.

Harmony Walton, Bridal Bar + JetFete Blog

Each time I attend Engage! I am blown away by the attention to detail (no surprise since the creators are Disney's Fairy Tale Weddings alumna), the creativity and the WOW factor.

Michele Schwartz, The Modern Jewish Wedding

So, how do they keep making each Engage! better and better and better? I am not sure, but man it sure does! Maybe it's the relationships I have started and developed over the years that just sweeten with time...? Maybe I am so lucky to have seen this conference through so many different lenses - as wide-eyed and kind of doubtful-that-I-would-enjoy-it-first-timer, to attendee, to two- time speaker (what an incredible honor!!), to photographer and now Photo Director (yes, there are capital letters there!), to a completely Engage! obsessed pink-haired fool! In between each Engage! I long for the company of my friends. As many of us have said before, it is like summer camp for wedding and event professionals!

Carla Ten Eyck, Carla Ten Eyck Photography

Always an outstanding event, Engage! was a game changer for me. I met incredibly motivating people who would shape my entrepreneurial thinking, had an opportunity to learn from the superstars of the industry, and network with the forward thinking.
